

Clearing Lines of Communication. German Engineers Repairing Telegraph Wires Near Charleville. The Wires Were Carried Across the River on the Bridge. When the Retiring Belgians Dynamited the Bridge the Telegraph Lines Were Broken.

Entrance to the Town Hall at Termonde Strewn with Debris from the Ruined Building. Two of the Great Bells, Thrown from Their Tower by an Exploding Shell, Have Been Rolled up Against the Building.